NEW YORK, Nov. 11, 1866.

MR. EDITOR:—In the fire at No. 38 Warren-street, on the morning of the 5th inst., our most valuable books and papers were exposed for 36 hours in one of Steares & Marvin's Fire-Prior Safes.

We say fire proof, not because they are so inheled, but because we have so proved them. Our books and papers came out unitifiered, save the binding of the books, occasioned by steam. Our store was five stories above ground, and two staes below, occupied from cellar to garret. The intensity the heat can be attested by any fireman who witnessed No furnace could be contrived by the logenuity of man create a more intense heat.
